

Questions

1. Recently government bonds by Britain failed to sell for the first time in seven years, and the governor of Britain's Central bank suggested that the prospective budget deficit was too big for any further fiscal stimulus to be possible. Who is he?
2. India's Tata motors last month officially launched the world's cheapest car at a price of 100,000 Indian rupees. What is the name of this car brand?
3. Which European city is the venue of the G-20 meeting held on April 2?
4. Name the US Treasury Secretary who along with chairman of Federal Reserve, recently testified in a congress hearing , and asked for powers to seize failing financial companies, similar to those exist for taking control of banks.
5. The number of premium air travellers worldwide fell by 16.7% in the year to January, according to IATA. What does IATA stand for?.
6. Which well known US business publication was started by Charles Dow of the Dow Jones and Company in 1889?
7. After which creature is the brand “ Reebok” so named?
8. Which 1954 Marlon Brando classic is based on the story of New York City Harbour Unions?
9. Which company introduced Nylon in 1938?
10. Who is best known for his formulation of two sets of assumptions-Theory X and Theory Y- about human nature?

Answers

1. Mervyn King
2. Nano
3. London
4. Tim Geithner
5. International Air Transport Association
6. The Wall Street Journal
7. An African gazelle
8. On the Waterfront
9. DuPont
10. Douglas McGregor